A Praying Life by Paul E. Miller

"PRAYER is simply you - a child of a good Father - making conversation with him a rhythm of your life. For most of us, prayer is so hard that unless circumstances demand it, we simply do not pray. Prayerlessness is rooted in unbelief. Because of prayerlessness, our lives are often marked by fear, anxiety, joylessness, and spiritual lethargy. Paul Miller introduces us to prayer that regularly and consistently hopes, trusts, and expects God to act."

PRAYER REQUESTS:

"Tis So Sweet To Trust In Jesus" Hymn History

"It is only fitting that a missionary should have written this beloved hymn. Louisa Steed was born in England, immigrated to the US and was called to missionary service during a revival meeting in Ohio. Her health was too frail to go to China as she planned. She married and was widowed early and left with one small child to raise alone. Nevertheless, she followed her calling to South Africa where she served for 15 years. During that time, she wrote this hymn. She also remarried and returned to the US again with failing health. When she strengthened, she and her husband went to Rhodesia as Methodist missionaries. In the face of all her difficulties, being able to have faith, confidence and trust in Christ Jesus continued to carry her through the hard times. After her death, her daughter, Lily, who had been with her through all her missions continued to work for many years at the Methodist Mission Station in southern Rhodesia (Zimbabwe)." Then Sings My Soul, c. 2003
