"Wherever He Leads, I'll Go" Hymn History

"The missionary, R.S. Jones was speaking at a Sunday School convention in Alabama after his health had forced him off the mission field when he was asked by the hymnwriter, B.B. McKinney about his future plans. Jones replies, "I don't know, but wherever He leads I'll go." McKinney could not get the words out of his mind and went to his room and penned the words and music that night. On the last night of the convention, he told Jones's story and sang the new hymn." The Complete Book of Hymns, c. 2006
